Foundations of Computer Science II

CSC 350 (Sections 01)

Term: Spring 2025

Time: Tuesdays & Thursdays, 12:30-1:45pm

Location: Petty 224

Credit Credits: 3 credits

Prerequisites: Grade of at least C (2.0) in CSC 250, or permission of instructor.

Instructor: Richard Johnson

Office: Petty 006

Office Hours: after class from 1:50-2:50pm

Email: rbjohns4@uncg.edu

Course Description

High level concepts in the theoretical foundations of computer science.

Textbook

Discrete Structures, Logic, and Computability, by: James L. Hein. Jones and Bartlett, 4th edition (ISBN: 978-1-284-07040-8).

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, a student should be able to:

1. Define basic terminology relating to logic, discrete probability, language and automata.
2. Practice the application of appropriate mathematical principles used to create logical expressions, languages and automata.
3. Evaluate logical expressions, languages and automata

Student Learning Objectives

The topics that will be covered during the semester include:

1. Elementary logic
2. Predicate Logic
3. Discrete Probability
4. Order Relations
5. Regular Languages and Automata

Evaluation and Grading Scheme

Your grade is based on the following criteria.

Assignments	30%
Exam 1	20%
Exam 2	20%
Cumulative Final	30%

Grading Scale

Letter Grade	Grade Percentage
A+	97% and above
A	93-96%
A-	90-92%
B+	87-89%
B	83-86%
B-	80-82%
C+	77-79%
C	73-76%
C-	70-72%
D+	67-69%
D	63-66%
D-	60-62%
F	Below 60%

Course Delivery

The format for this course is two 75-minute lectures per week, punctuated by occasional discussion and exercises. Evaluation will be based on assignments, two midterm and one final exam.

Assignments

All written assignments will be announced in class along with due dates. Assignments are due before the start of class on the scheduled due date; late assignments will not be accepted. Each student should complete assignments independently.

Exams

No collaboration or communication is allowed during exams. All work must be your own. Any violations of this policy are violations of academic integrity, and the university's academic integrity policy, linked in a later section, applies. The cumulative final exam will be given during the time specified on the University Registrar's Office Exam Schedule. Dates for in-class exams (Exam I and II) will be announced with ample time.

Final Exam: Friday, May 2, 3:30-6:30pm

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend class regularly. It is the student's responsibility to obtain the information that was presented during a class that was missed. Students should inform the instructor as far in advance as possible when conflicts or absences can be anticipated. (e.g., athletic team events, work, medical procedures, religious observances, etc.).

Makeup Policy

You may not make up exams without prior arrangements, a written medical excuse or a documented emergency. Makeup exams are at the sole discretion of the instructor, if you fail to make up for the exam within a reasonable period of time, you will receive a zero.

Canvas Policy

You should check Canvas regularly for course announcements. Grades from assignments and exams will be posted to Canvas. It is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor of missing or misreported grades within one week after they are posted. All course materials will be accessible through Canvas.

Email Communication

I may use email to communicate with you. I will only use your UNCG email addresses. Please make sure to check your messages regularly. If you normally use a different email address, it is your responsibility to forward your UNCG messages to that address. When you email me (or reply), please use only your UNCG email.

Academic Integrity Policy

Students are expected to abide by the UNCG Academic Integrity Policy, available at: http://sa.uncg.edu/handbook/academic-integrity-policy/

Any infraction(s) will result in failure of the entire course and a final course grade of F. The instructor will also report the case to the university.

Electronic Device Policy

Cell phones and other electronic devices should be turned off prior to the beginning of class.

Recording Policy

No student may record any classroom activity without express written consent from the instructor. If you have (or think you may have) a disability such that you need to record or tape classroom activities, you should contact the Office of Accessibility Resources & Services http://ods.uncg.edu/ to request appropriate accommodation.

Classroom Decorum

You should arrive on time; habitual tardiness is disruptive. Eating and drinking is not permitted in class. Smoking is strictly prohibited in the classroom. This includes e-cigarettes. Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated, you will be asked to leave. A pattern of disruptive behavior may result in your withdrawal from the course.

Withdrawal

A syllabus constitutes an agreement between the student and the course instructor about course requirements. Participation in this course indicates your acceptance of its teaching focus, requirements, and policies. Please review the syllabus and the course requirements as soon as possible. If you believe that the nature of this course does not meet your interests, needs or expectations, if you are not prepared for the amount of work involved or if you anticipate that the class meetings, assignment deadlines or abiding by the course policies will constitute an unacceptable hardship for you, you should drop the class by the drop/add deadline, which is located on the Academic Calendar. For more information, please visit the Office of the University Registrar.

ADA Statement

UNCG seeks to comply fully with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Students requesting accommodation based on a disability must be registered with the Office of Accessibility Resources and Services located in 215 Elliott University Center: (336) 3345440 (or http://oars.uncg.edu).

University Closings

If university facilities are closed due to flu outbreak or other emergencies, it does not mean that classes are canceled. In such an event, please check the Canvas site for information about if and how the class will proceed.

Disclaimer

This syllabus is intended to give the student guidance in what may be covered during the semester and will be followed as closely as possible. However, the instructor reserves the right to modify, supplement and make changes as needs arise.
